Cuppa Yo Celebrates Grand Opening in Prineville, OR, Bringing the Beloved Frozen Yogurt Brand to a New Community

Prineville, OR – September 26, 2024—Central Oregon's newest spot for frozen yogurt delights, Cuppa Yo, will open its doors in Prineville on Saturday, September 28th, 2024. Owned by long-time Central Oregon residents Tasha and Kelly Harper, Cuppa Yo aims to offer a unique, self-serve frozen yogurt experience that's perfect for families and friends looking to indulge in a customizable treat.

The latest Cuppa Yo is located at 455 NE 3rd St. This new Prineville shop continues the brand's tradition of combining fun, flavor, and community. It will feature a vibrant selection of frozen yogurt flavors and a wide array of toppings, promising something for everyone.

"We are thrilled to open Cuppa Yo in Prineville and share our passion for frozen yogurt with the community," said Tasha Harper. "We believe in creating a space where everyone feels like a neighbor, and we're excited to introduce a place where families can create sweet moments together." - Tasha Harper, Franchise Owner

The grand opening celebration will start at 11am on September 28th, featuring several opening-day specials, free yogurt samples for the first 50 customers, and a fun photo wall. With fun for all ages music, and a chance to win a free frozen yogurt gift card, it's an opening day you won't want to miss.

Kelly Harper added, "Our goal is to make Cuppa Yo a community hub, not just a place to eat. We're committed to being an active part of the community, supporting local events and causes that make Central Oregon such a wonderful place to live."

Cuppa Yo is excited to provide a welcoming, family-friendly atmosphere where customers can enjoy their creations in a fun and playful setting. It's more than just dessert; it's a place to make memories.
